At the express written consent of a unit owner, such insurance may be extended to insure additions and alterations to a unit (including but not limited to cabinetry, railings, flooring, tile, carpeting, fixtures, and similar installations and additions or replacements thereof) attached to or situated within that portion of the premises used exclusively by said unit owner and acquired or installed at the expense of said unit owner or previous owner of said unit. Such policy shall also provide for the release by the insurer thereof of any and all rights of subrogation or assignment and all causes and rights of recovery against any unit owner, member of his family, his tenant, or other occupant of the Condominium Property for recovery against any one of them for any loss occurring to the insured property resulting from any of the perils insured against under such insurance policy.

A. Sufficient Insurance.

In the event the improvements forming a part of the Condominium Property, or any portion thereof, shall suffer damage or destruction from any cause or peril insured against and the proceeds of any policy or policies insuring against such loss or damage and payable by reason thereof shall be sufficient to pay the cost of such repair, restoration, or reconstruction, then such repair, restoration or reconstruction shall be undertaken by the Association and the insurance proceeds shall be applied by the Association in payment therefor; provided, however, that in the event, within thirty (30) days after such damage or destruction, the unit owners, if they are entitled to do so pursuant to Section C of this Article X, shall elect to sell the Condominium Property or to withdraw the same from the provisions of this Declaration, then such repair, restoration or reconstruction shall not be undertaken.

B. Insufficient Insurance.

In the event the improvements forming a part of the Condominium Property, or any portion thereof, shall suffer damage or destruction from any cause or peril which is not insured against, or, if insured against, the insurance proceeds from which shall not be sufficient to pay the cost of repair, restoration, or reconstruction, taking into account any insurance proceeds attributable to specific unit owner improvements and additions, then, unless the unit owners shall within ninety (90) days after such damage or destruction, if they are entitled to do so pursuant to Section C of this Article X, elect to withdraw the property from the provisions of this Declaration, such repair, restoration, or reconstruction of the units so damaged or destroyed shall be undertaken by the Association at the expense of the owners of the units so damaged or destroyed in the same proportions which the cost of repair, restoration or reconstruction of each such Family Unit so damaged or destroyed bears to the total cost of repair, restoration or reconstruction of all such units, and such repair, restoration or reconstruction of all or any part of the common areas and facilities shall be undertaken by the Association at the expense of all the owners of units in the same proportions in which they shall own the common areas and facilities. Should any unit owner refuse or fail after reasonable notice to pay his share of such cost in excess of available insurance proceeds, the amount thereof may be advanced by the Association and the amount so advanced by the Association shall be assessed to such owner and such assessment shall have the same force and effect and, if not paid, may be enforced in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the non-payment of assessments.

To determine the share of each unit owner of the cost in excess of the available insurance proceeds, the following principles shall govern:

1) The cost of repair, restoration, or reconstruction of all uninsured and underinsured (to the extent of such underinsurance), damage or destruction to units shall be borne by the unit owner.

2) The cost of repair, restoration or reconstruction of the uninsured and underinsured (to the extent of such underinsurance), damage or destruction of common areas shall be borne by the unit owners in proportion to their respective percentages of interest in the common areas and facilities.

3) All insured, damages or destroyed portions of the Condominium Property shall be deemed underinsured in the same proportion.

The term "uninsured damage or destruction" as used herein shall mean loss occurring by reason of a hazard not covered by the insurance policies of the Association. The term "underinsured damage or destruction" as used herein shall mean loss occurring by reason of hazard covered by the insurance policies of the Association, but for which the proceeds are insufficient to cover the cost of repair, restoration or reconstruction.

The final determination made with the insurers as to insured, uninsured and underinsured damage or destruction shall govern.

The Board of Managers of the Association shall thereupon proceed with such renewal and rehabilitation and the cost thereof shall be a common expense. Any unit owner who does not vote for such renewal and rehabilitation may elect, in a writing served by him, on the President of the Association, within ten (10) days after receiving notice of such vote, to receive the fair value of his unit, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances thereof as of the date such vote is taken, in return for a conveyance of his unit, subject to such liens and encumbrances, to the Association. Within fifteen (15) days after receipt of said written notice by the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers and the unit owners desiring to make such gift shall each appoint a qualified real estate appraiser. The two appraisers so appointed shall, within ten (10) days after their appointment, appoint another qualified real estate appraiser. The Board of Managers' option to purchase the unit ownership or interest therein shall expire forty-five (45) days after the date of receipt by it of such notice.

C. Devise.

In the event any unit owner dies leaving a will devising his or her unit ownership, or any interest therein, to any person or persons not heirs-in-law of the deceased owner under the Ohio Statute of Descent and Distribution, and said will is admitted to probate, the members of the Board of Managers acting on behalf of consenting unit owners as hereinafter provided, shall have a like option (to be exercised in the manner hereinafter set forth) to purchase said unit ownership or interest therein either from the devisee or devisees thereof named in said will or, if a power of sale is conferred by said will upon the personal representative named therein, from the personal representative acting pursuant to said power, for cash at fair market value which is to be determined by appraisal. D. The invalidity of any covenant, restriction, condition, limitation, or any other provision of this Declaration or the By-Laws or of any part of the same, shall not impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the rest of this Declaration.

E. If any of the privileges, covenants or rights created by this Declaration or the By-Laws shall be unlawful or void for violation of (a) the rule against perpetuities or some analogous statutory provision, (b) the rule restricting restraints on alienation, or (c) any other statutory or common law rules imposing time limits, then such provision shall continue until twenty-one (21) years after the death of the survivor of the now living decedents of John Glen and Howard Metzenbaum, United States Senators from Ohio, and James Earl Carter, President of the United State of America.

E. Neither Developer nor its representatives, successors or assigns, shall be liable for any claim whatsoever arising out of or by reason of any actions performed pursuant to any authorities granted or delegated to it by or pursuant to this Declaration or by the By-Laws attached hereto as Exhibit D or in Developer's (or its representative's)

G. In the event that the Association and/or any unit owner receives the proceeds of a taking by eminent domain, said proceeds may not be used to expand or extend the condominium property unless the written consent of all mortgagees is given.

In the event that Association should determine to expand or extend the condominium property from funds received by said taking, all mortgagees shall have a right to participate in said funds which are allocated for said expansion or extensions prorata as the total of undivided interests upon which they hold a lien bears to the total of all undivided interests upon which all mortgagees hold a lien.
